- Tuition Fees are payable termly in advance for Cypriots and long-term property-owning Cyprus residents and annually in advance for all others. Any other payment arrangement must be agreed in writing beforehand. The decision as to whether Tuition Fees are paid termly or annually is made by the Accounts Department. Requests to make any changes to an existing payment arrangement must be agreed in writing in advance with the Accounts Department.
- Tuition Fees must be paid in full in advance within the following prescribed period unless agreed in writing otherwise:
  - Annual invoices are payable before or by the end of the first week of September;
  - Termly invoices are payable before or by the end of the first week of September, January and April.
- Tuition Fees are not refundable or transferable under any circumstances, whether paid annually or termly and the School does not accept pupils for less than one complete School year. Any proposed delay in payment of the Tuition Fees and any other fees must be agreed in advance, in writing, with the Accounts Department at School.
- Any unauthorised delay will be in breach of this contract and therefore preclude the pupil's attendance at certain events of the School, i.e. pupils may not attend any clubs, events or trips or sit any exams when fees are in arrears by more than one term. There will be no reduction in fees when the curriculum is delivered online due to a Ministry of Education directive or Force Majeure.
