Secondary Post

Teacher of Business and Economics

Foley's School is a prestigious private international school in Limassol with an established reputation for academic excellence, high standards of discipline, and a rich and diverse extracurricular programme.

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Secondary Business and Economics Teacher to join our Business School Department. The ideal candidate will be passionate about teaching and learning, have excellent classroom management skills, and be committed to supporting the academic and personal development of every pupil. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching Business and Economics across the Secondary School, including exam classes where appropriate. The post holder will contribute to curriculum development, promote high standards of achievement, and support pupils' academic and personal growth.

Requirements:

- Relevant university degree.
- A minimum of two years' teaching Business and Economics experience at secondary level, including IGCSE and A level.
- Total fluency in English, both written and spoken.
- A commitment to high academic standards and child-centred education.
- Strong communication, collaboration, and organisational skills.
- A willingness to contribute to the wider life of the School, including extracurricular activities.
- Total fluency in English, both written and spoken.
- A commitment to the School's mission and values.

Desirable:

- PGCE and/or QTS
- Experience working in an international school setting
- Familiarity with the British curriculum

How to Apply:
